THE ROUNDUP

Debate Team

First row—Baker Waterman, Jane Gibson, Dale Harris.

Second row—Walter Hiersteiner, Bradley Nelson, Tom Anderson, Jacque Compton, Mr. Carrothers.

Baker Waterman, June '34

Baker has been one of the outstanding debaters in the state for the last two years. Last year he was on the negative team that placed first in the state finals. This year he has engaged in nineteen debates, winning thirteen. In the state finals this year he was a member of the team which placed fourth.

Walter Hiersteiner, June '35

Walter tried debating for the first time this year and met with considerable success. He took part in fifteen debates, usually teaming with Baker Waterman on the affirmative side.

Bradley Nelson, January '36

Bradley also was a new-comer on the debate team this year, and he won a majority of the thirteen debates in which he engaged. He has three more semesters of competition before him.

Jane Gibson, June '35

Jane began her debating career last year, and she kept up her good work this year by winning a good share of the fourteen contests in which she had a part.

SPEECH CONTEST WINNERS

Courtney Smith, June '34

Courtney has been a consistent winner in speaking contests for three years, and he captured second place in the city extemporaneous speaking contest this year. He won the contest at Roosevelt.

Jennett Primer, January '34

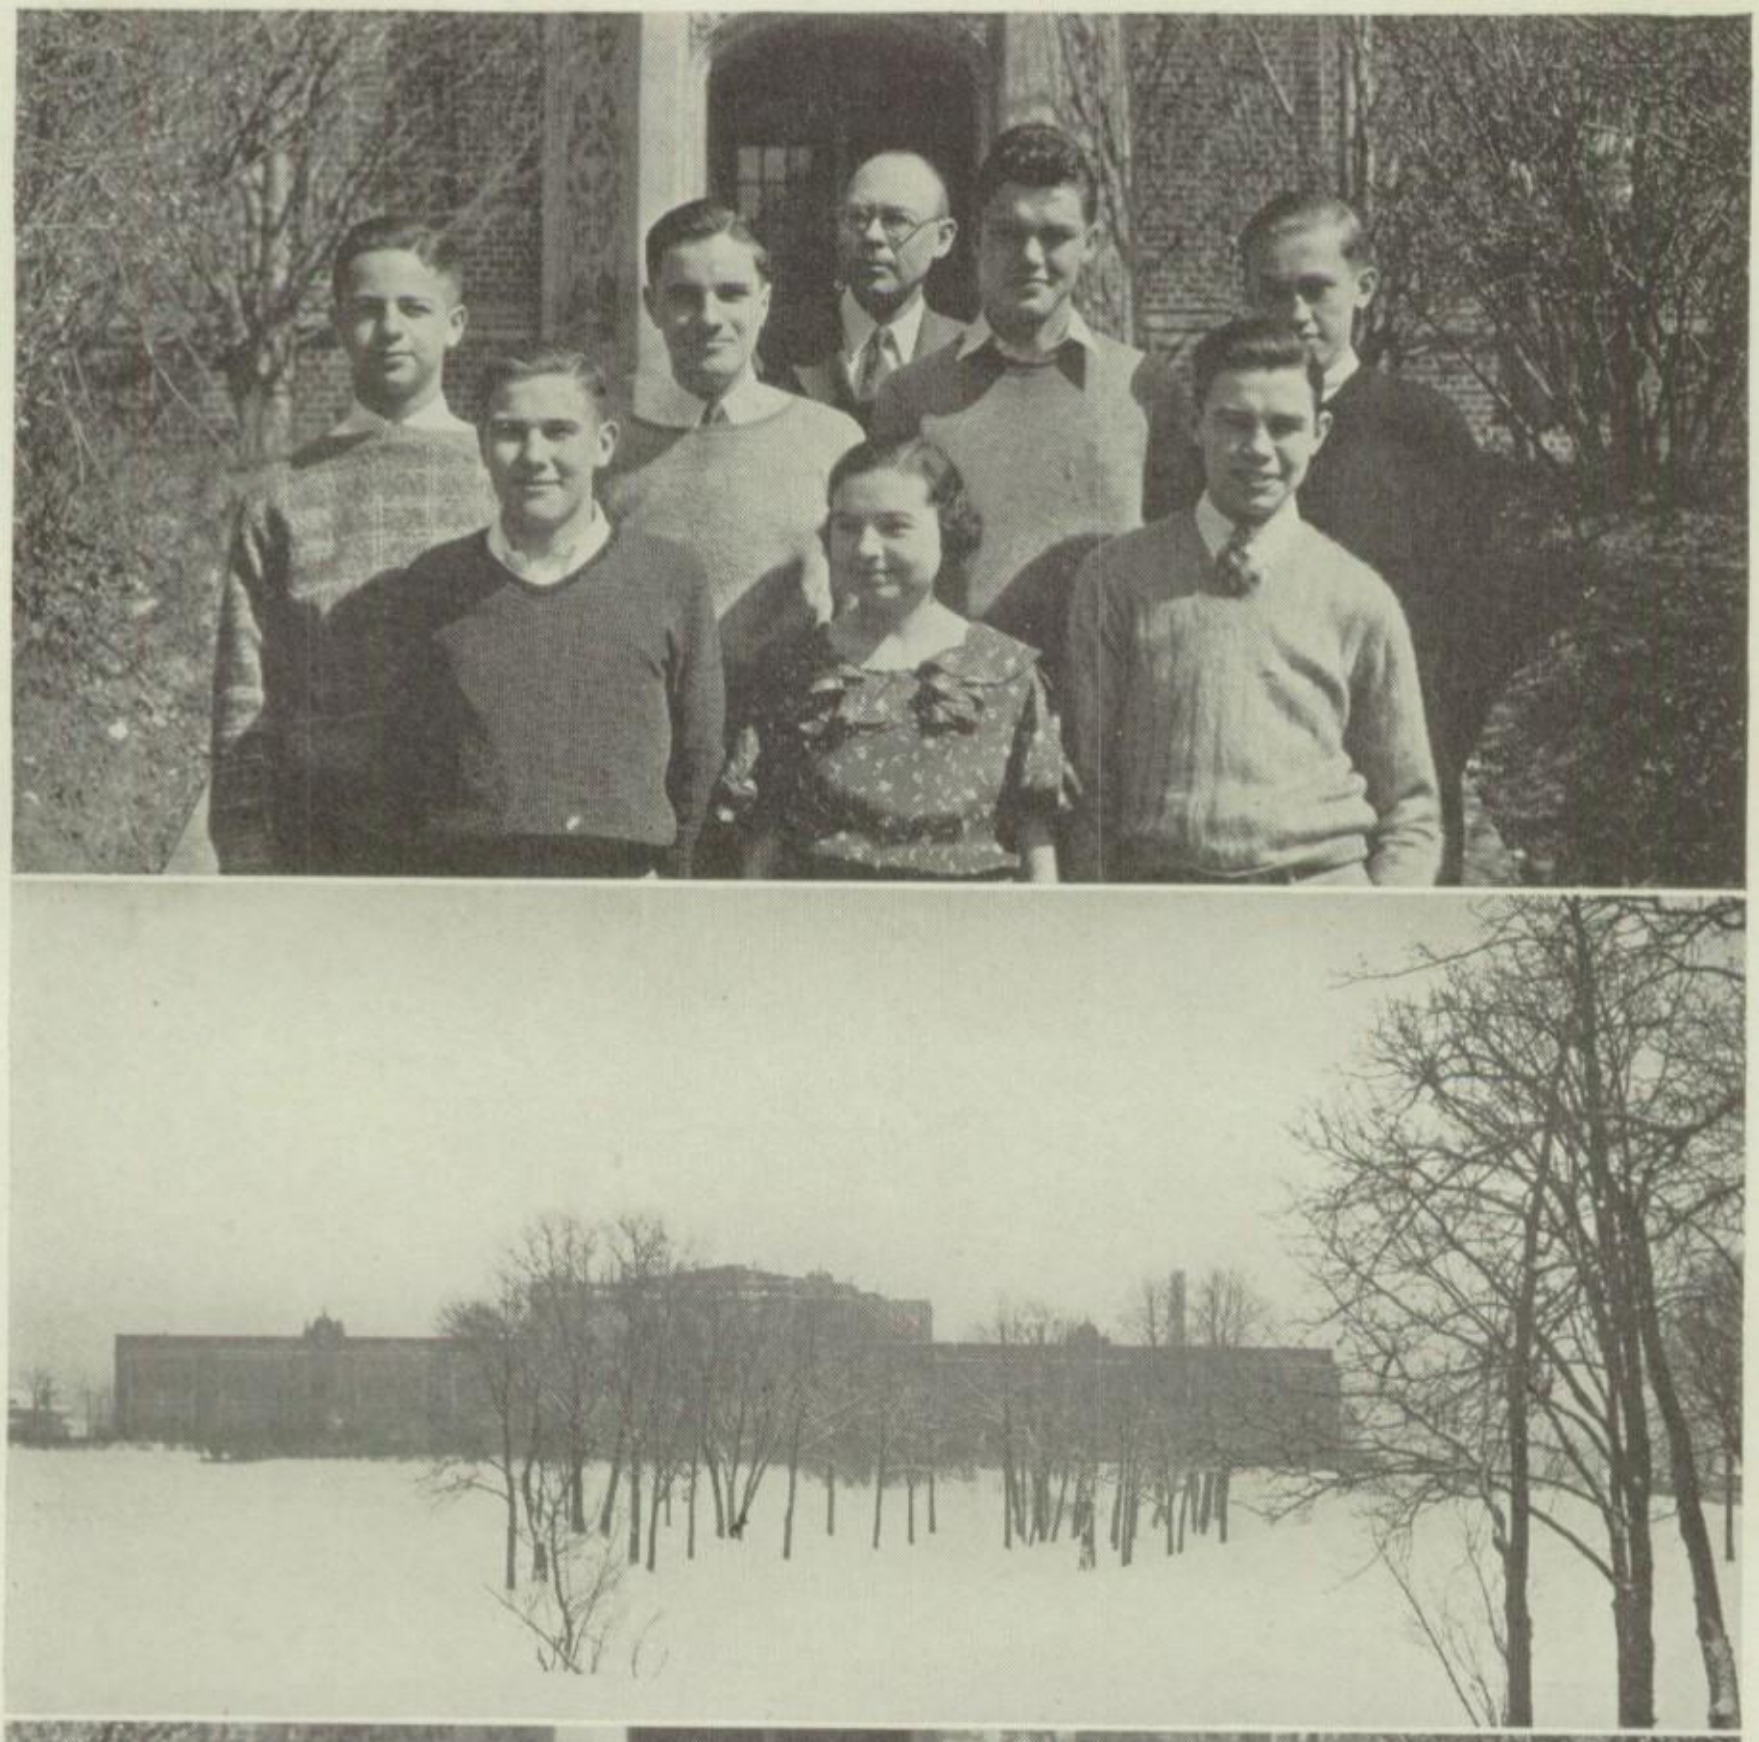
Jennett took an active part in public speaking activities, and proved herself to be the best extemporaneous speaker in the city last semester when she won the city contest.

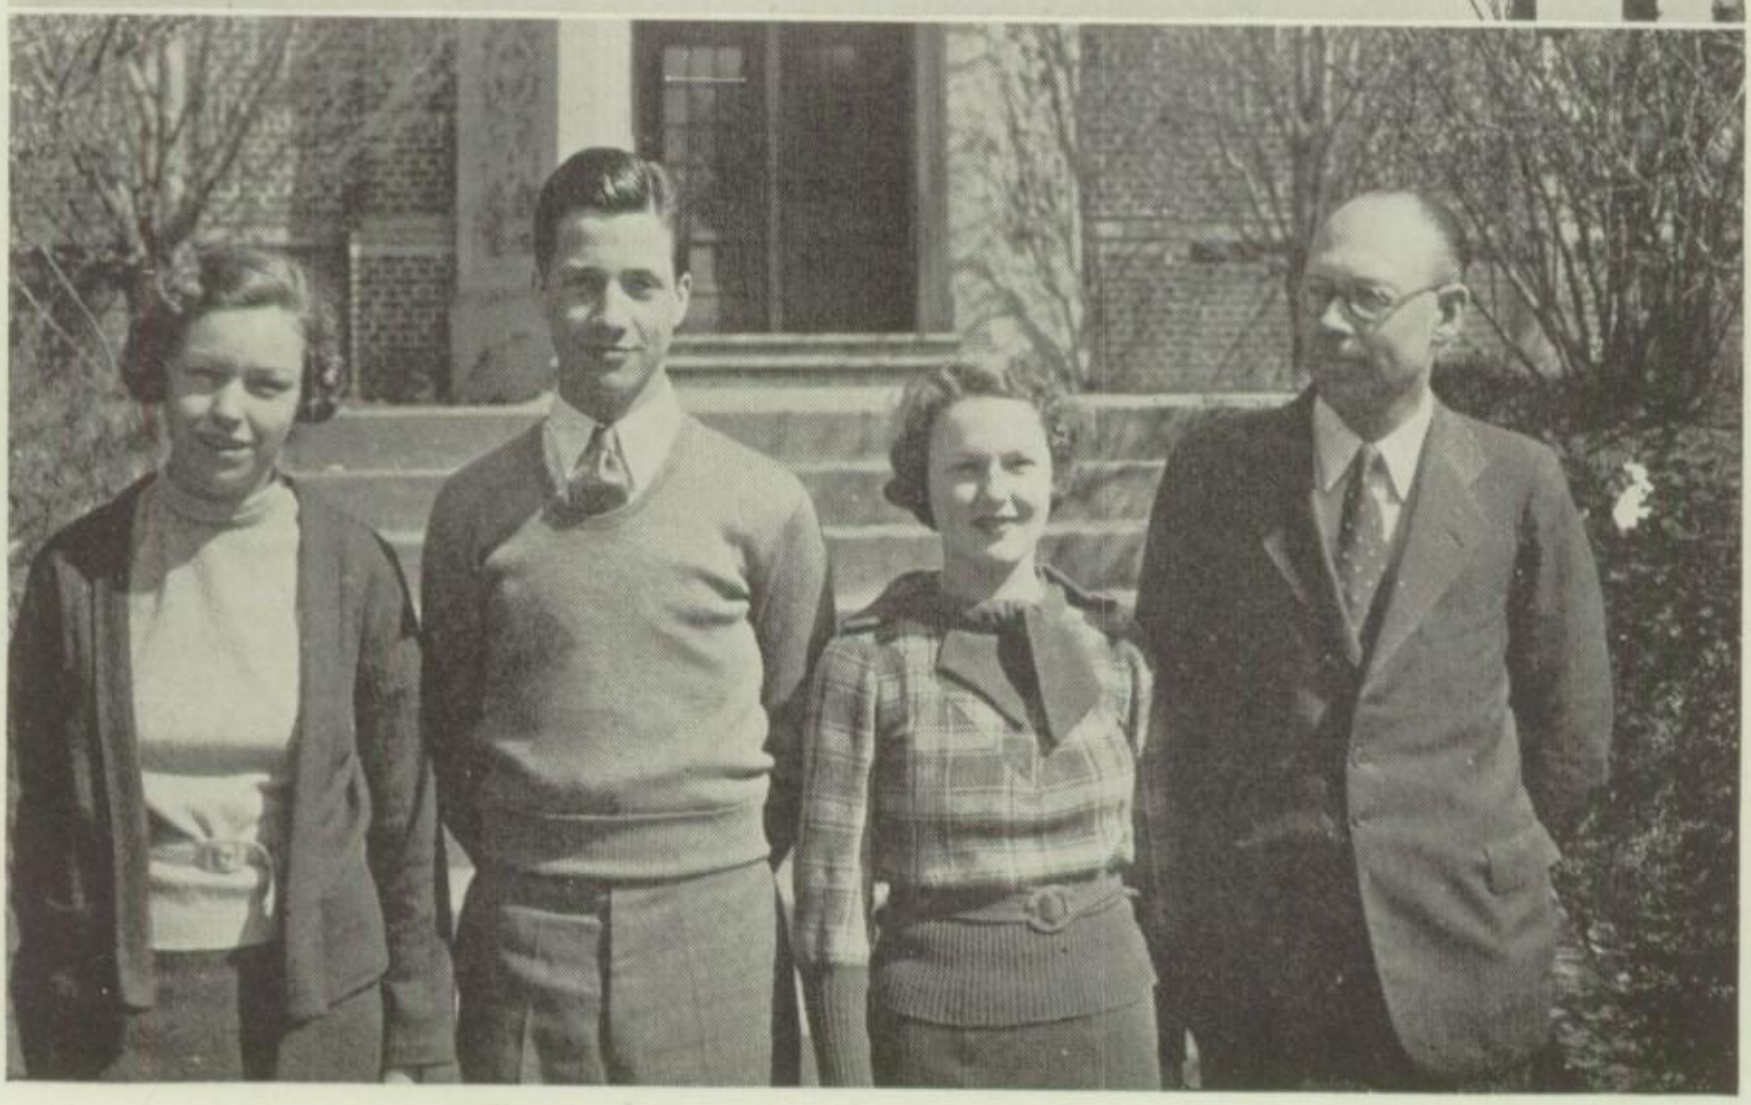
Mary Blythe Cory, June '34

Mary Blythe can also claim the distinction of being one of the outstanding speakers in Roosevelt this year. She was ranked fourth best contestant in the Iowa high school oratorical contest at Iowa City, and later she won second honors in the city contest after winning the oration contest at Roosevelt.

Speech Contest Winners

Martha Bodtke, Courtney Smith, Mary Blythe Cory, Mr. Carrothers.





Vocal Leaders

Bob Browne, June '34

Bob Browne, the senior rhythm king, deserves recognition for the time he has spent working in the music department. He is a member of the boys' quartet, chorus, boys' glee club and mixed sextet. He is the boy that carries the pitch pipe and remembers the keys for himself and everyone else. He plays the piano, guitar and banjo.

Norland Tibbetts, June '34

Norland Tibbetts the long, thin comedian that proved such a contrast to Bob Browne in the operetta, ''The Red Mill,'' is Miss Duncan's assistant and acts as student director. ''Tibby'' is a member of the mixed sextet, chorus and boys' glee club. He is the pinch hitter and whatever part is short he sings.

Eileen Grennell, June '34

Eileen Grennell, the ''rope slider'' in ''The Red Mill,'' was rated an excellent in the state contest at Iowa City in the soprano soloist. She also represented Roosevelt in the piano soloist division. ''Irish'' is a member of the girls' glee club, chorus, girls' sextet and mixed sextet. She is not selfish with her talents but is willing to sing or play whenever wanted.

Ruth Foster, June '34

Ruth Foster, our contralto soloist, was rated excellent at the state contest. She is a member of the girls' glee club, chorus and girls' sextet. The girl who ''speiled'' French faster than even the advanced French student could understand in ''The Red Mill'' was none other than Miss Foster. She assists with the Junior High Pleasure Singing Club.

Hazel Mae Merriam, June '34

Hazel Mae Merriam is a member of the chorus, girls' glee club and girls' sextet. She had a lead in the operetta, ''The Red Mill.'' The Junior High Pleasure Singing Club has also the assistance of Hazel Mae.

Loren Cunningham, June '35

Loren Cunningham, the fellow that walks around the halls singing and yodeling ''Yada de doo,'' represented Roosevelt at Iowa City in the baritone soloist division. Loren is a member of the boys' glee club, chorus, and boys' quartet, and will be back next year.

Rex Turner, June '34

The tall, tow-headed tenor soloist Rex Turner is a member of the boys' glee club, chorus and mixed sextet. He has not only spent lots of time working in the music department, but is a member of the stage crew.

John Pressley, June '34

John Pressley, who can warble a loud, melodious, and hearty ''The Man on the Flying Trapeze'' is an active member of the boys' glee club, chorus and boys' quartet. He is one of these handy chaps that can sing any part needed.

Alice Yost, June '34

Alice Yost, president of Music Honor Society, is a member of the girls' glee club and chorus. For two years she has been the official accompanist for the boys' glee club. She also accompanied the boys' quartet.

Dorene Capps, June '35

Dorene Capps, the accompanist for the girls' glee club, is not only a pianist but has a good voice and is one of the coming soprano soloists. Dorene will be a big help next year because she plays, besides the piano, the cello and violin.

Virginia Wiseman, June '34

Petite, quiet Virginia Wiseman has been a member of Miss Duncan's music class for six years. She is a member of the girls' glee club, girls' sextet, and chorus. Because of her outstanding service in the music department she deserves recognition at this time.

Band and Orchestra

Winners in the State Music Contest—1934

1st violin, Edmund Weingart; 1st viola, Betty Cubbage; 1st harp, Helen Thomas; 1st string quartette, Edmund Weingart, Mary Crawford, Betty Cubbage, Dorene Capps; Norma Templeton, flute; 2nd horn, Arlo Knowles.

Outstanding Band and Orchestra Members

Edmund Weingart

This is Edmund's third year in the orchestra. He studied in Leipsig, Germany, during the winter, and returned this spring to win a superior rating on the violin in the state contest. He also serves as concert master of the orchestra.

Arlee Colvin

Arlee holds down the first chair in the clarinet section and serves as student director. She took part in solo competition in 1933, and has played in numerous quartettes and in other small groups.

Helen Thomas

Helen strings the harp for both the band and orchestra. Although she only began to play the harp fourteen months ago she went through the series of contests in the state competition to win a lone superior rating.

Arlo Knowles

Arlo has been a valuable member in both the band and the orchestra for five years. He has represented Roosevelt for three years in the French horn solo competition, going through the state and into the national contest where he captured a second place in 1933. This spring he won second honors in the state contest.

Harry Bachman

Harry is known as one of the best bass players ever developed in Roosevelt, and he has represented the school in musical contests for three years.

Norma Templeton

For five years Norma has been a member of the band and orchestra, and this spring she won a second place on the flute in the state contest.

Kenneth Carpenter

Kenneth has been the leader of the saxophone section and also of the string basses in the orchestra. He is a hard worker, a fine player, and one who has a strong influence in leading in the right direction in both band and orchestra.

Mary Crawford

Roosevelt has been represented in the state music contest for two years by Mary. She has alternated at the first chair violin, and led the second violin section through the state contest series this year.

Dorene Capps

Dorene has taken a large part in music at Roosevelt. She played the cello this year in the orchestra.

Bada Rushe

One of Roosevelt's most versatile musicians will be graduated this spring when Bada receives her diploma. She has played the violin and the viola in the orchestra for two years, and the trombone, the bass horn, and the baritone in the band.

THE ROUNDUP

Football Lettermen

Captain Eldon Woltz, June '34

In his third year on the Blue and White eleven, Eldon Woltz starred from fullback position. His defensive play and slashing off-takle drives marked him in every game. He topped the individual city scoring race with sixty points and his ability was recognized by sports writers when they placed him on the all-city team. Jack North honored him with a position on the fourth all-state team.

Ted Appelquist, June '35

Ted started the season at quarterback but his hard tackling and ability to get down on punts forced Coach Harris to shift him to left end. This position suited him perfectly and his play for the remainder of the season won him a place on the second all-city team. Ted has another year and promises to be one of the outstanding ends in the state.

Jim Brammer, June '34

Playing a flashy game at halfback Jim Brammer won the respect of his opponents. He was adept at running back punts from the safety position and was on the receiving end of the Roughriders' well-known aerial attack which enabled him to catch the pass that beat North High 6 to 0.

Marcellus McMichael, June '34

Mike started out the season at right end but he was shifted to quarterback where he did all the punting and passing for the team. Some of his punts traveled as far as 70 yards and he threw the pass to Brammer that won the North High game. His ability was recognized by the sports writers when they placed him on the all-city football team. Jack North honored Mike by naming him at the quarterback position on the third all-state team.

Mark Conkling, January '34

Mark played his first year for the Roughriders at center and his work both on offense and defense was an outstanding feature in the Roosevelt line. He was chosen all-city center and received honorable mention in Jack North's all-state selections.

Paul Baichley, January '35

Paul Baichley played a hard hitting game last fall at right end for the Blue and White eleven. ''Baich's'' hard tackling and unusual blocking stamped him as one of the most promising ends to be developed at Roosevelt in recent years.

Jim Miller, June '34

Because of his all around ability Jim was ''general utility man'' on the football team last fall. Coach Harris used him at end, guard and center during the season. Miller took care of each position with exceptional ability and his willingness to play anywhere often helped the team through the ''tight places.''

John Parks, June '34

Johnny's play in the last four games was sensational. Starting the season as a substitute John soon proved to Coach Harris that he couldn't be kept off the team. In the East High game his ability to stop Burr Hohl, all-state fullback, time after time was a highlight of the Rough riders' successful season.

Clifford Losh, June '34

Remember the Lincoln, Roosevelt game when the fighting Blue and White eleven, led by Cliff Losh and Eldon Woltz, trounced their rivals 22 to 0? It was Cliff's ''knee-action'' performance that spelled defeat for the Southsiders. Time after time he catapulted through the line for sizeable gains. For the remainder of the season Cliff paired with Woltz in shattering the opposing lines.

Burris Avise, June '34

Avise known for his track ability used his speed to good advantage on the gridiron last fall. Playing halfback his speed on offense and his hard tackling on defense made him a valuable player.

Guy Clubb, June '34

Guy was the kind of player that could ''give and take'' with the biggest opponent. More than six feet in height and weighing 180 pounds, Guy took care of the left tackle position in great style and his hard play was an inspiration to his teammates.

Fred Bodtke, January '34

Starting the season at halfback, Bodtke was changed to guard in the Grinnell game where he played a bang-up game. Injuries hampered Fred in the last two games but in spite of this handicap he was placed on the second all-city team.

Dale Derrick, January '34

Dale saw little action but he proved a valuable reserve at either guard. His fighting spirit forced the regulars to perform at top speed in every game.

Jerry Barnes, June '36

Being exceptionally fast for a big man Jerry was used at fullback in several games. His fierce tackling on defense and his bone-crushing work on offense stood out in Roosevelt's victory over North.

Ed Lorenz, January '34

Eddie started the season at left end but when Ted Appelquist was moved to that position he alternated at both ends. Being one of the fastest men on the squad he was particularly adept on receiving long passes and going down under punts.

Dick Coolidge, June '35

Possessing a fighting spirit ''Pinky'' played a consistent game at guard last fall. Dick's ability to ''stay low'' and keep his feet enabled him to drive in and throw opponents for big losses. Dick should be one of the mainstays of the 1934 team.

Junior Minear, June '34

Junior was one of the few veterans on the team last fall. He was shifted to tackle this season where he performed in great style. Although not a flashy player Junior's work was greatly admired by his teammates.

Max Bates, January '34

Max was Brammer's understudy for the 1933 season. Although he did not play in the majority of the games he was a reliable man both on offense and defense. In the Lincoln game Max intercepted a pass and side stepped his way thirty yards to the goal line.

Bob Weston, June '34

Bob alternated at left tackle last fall, his ability to ''fight it up'' prompted Coach Harris to give him a chance. Bob came through in great style but a broken nose proved to be a serious handicap, as a result he played in several games wearing a nose guard.

John Maher, June '34

Johnny won his second football letter last fall at right tackle. Big and powerful, Maher was able to move most any opponent out of the way and his brawny frame cleared the way for most of the gains through right tackle.

Basket Ball Lettermen

Jim Brammer, June '34

Playing his third year with the Roughriders, Jim displayed a brilliant floor game this season. His smooth passing and clever floor work were two of the reasons for the success of the high powered Roosevelt offense. Jim was the type of player that his team mates respected because of his unusual ability to find a man open instead of shooting. Mike's great number of points usually were made after a pass from Brammer and Hoak also benefited from Jim's passing. A finished basket ball player will leave Roosevelt when Jim receives his diploma this June.

Dick Hoak, June '35

Dick was the only new addition to the team this year since the other starting players were veterans. Despite this Hoak was the second high scorer of the team and his floor play was outstanding. Dick soon proved to be an essential cog in the smooth working offense of the Roosevelt team and he could always be depended on to swish two or three baskets through the net every game. Dick will be the only regular to return next season.

Marcellus McMichael, June '34

Mike wound up a brilliant four-year career this season by making the all-state team for the fourth successive time. He is the only player in Iowa to ever accomplish this feat. In addition to this honor Mike was captain of the team for the second time and he led the city scorers with an average of eighteen points a game. Because of his consistent play he was also placed on the all-city team for the fourth successive time. The Roosevelt line-up will look strange next year without Mike's name appearing in it since he will be graduated in June.

Jim Miller, June '34

Jim is another four letter man in basket ball and his fine all around play won him a position on the all-state team this year. He was particularly adept in blocking shots and time after time his long arms knocked the ball down as it was headed for the basket. Jim's ability to take the ball off the bang board was sensational. He was honored on the all-city team at the close of the season to climax an outstanding basket ball career.

Eldon Woltz, June '34

Eldie's ability to cover court and to take the ball away from an opponent soon won him the respect of many basket ball fans. Although he didn't shoot very often his speed in coming around for "set ups" gave him a number of easy baskets. Jack North honored Eldie by placing him on the fourth all-state team and his all around play during the regular season won him a position on the all-city team.

Harry Cutler, June '34

Harry's improvement during the season was spectacular. Because of his small stature he started the season with a handicap but his fight and ability to get the ball in the basket caused Coach Harris to use him quite frequently as the season progressed. Another good man will be lost when Harry is graduated this June.

Granville Stringfellow, June '34

"Granny" broke into the line-up because of his ability to control the ball. Six feet three inches tall he was able to play either forward or center equally well. His defensive play was of the highest caliber and his work under the basket was valuable. In most of the games Stringfellow saw action at least half of the time.

Bill Cordingly, June '35

During the last half of the season Bill proved that he could really play basket ball. He got his chance when Coach Harris shifted Miller to forward and placed Bill at guard. His play for the remainder of the season was sensational. In the sectional, district and state tournaments his unusual ability to intercept passes and to break through for baskets aided the Blue and White five considerably. With another year ahead of him Bill should develop into one of the outstanding guards in the state.

Ted Appelquist, January '34

Ted's ability to drive after the ball prompted Coach Harris to use him on the first team. Although not strong offensively Ted's defensive play was outstanding. His fleetness afoot enabled him to cover more than his share of the court and he could play either center or guard, but most of his work was done at the latter position. Ted's last semester of basket ball should be a big one.

Jerry Barnes, June '36

Weighing 196 pounds and standing almost six feet in height Jerry was the rugged type of guard. In addition to these qualities he was unusually fast for a big man and his ability to cover his guard position surprised his opponents. Although he was used at guard this year Jerry can play center with exceptional ability. Since Barnes has two more years of competition left his name should appear at center in the future Roosevelt line-ups. At either guard or center Jerry has an outstanding basket ball career ahead of him.

Swimming Lettermen

Charles Glenn, June '34

Captain Chuck Glenn ended his high school swimming career in a blaze of glory this season as he broke the state and city back-stroke records. In a dual meet with North High Chuck outsplashed his rivals by three-quarters of a length to win in a new state record time of 1:11.8. In the finals of the city swimming meet Glenn proved his superiority by setting a new record, 1:12.6, and he also swam on the state championship medley relay team. Chuck has been defeated only once in three years, that being at the hands of Freitag the former state record holder. A super back-stroker will be lost to the swimming team when Chuck receives his diploma this June.

Don Towne, January '35

Don's specialty was the 100-yard breast-stroke and he performed this event in state championship form. Don stroked this distance in 1:11.8 to set a new state record. He was also a member of the state championship medley relay team which hung up a new state mark. In dual competition this season Don was undefeated and he is the present city champion.

Kyle Morris, June '35

Kyle was a point winner in two events this year for the Roughrider mermen. In the 40-yard free style event Kyle usually came through with a victory. In the city meet he tied for first with Bob Link, a teammate, and Sheffer of East High. During the season Kyle's ability to win points in the fancy dives enabled Roosevelt to win several meets. Next year should see Kyle set a new 40-yard free style record.

Bob Link, June '35

Although Bob was ineligible during the first half of the season he swam brilliantly in the last four meets. In the finals of the city swimming meet Bob splashed his way to a tie for first place in the 40-yard free style. Due to the fact that Bob has had such little experience it is unusual that he should develop so rapidly. Unless he decides to report for basket ball next year the swimming team will have a valuable man.

Wefel Warner, June '37

Wefel has the honor of being one of the few athletes to win a letter in his freshman year. In winning his letter Wefel established a new record in the 200-yard free style event. Maas of North barely nosed out the young freshman in the finals of the city swimming meet. With three more years of competition left Wefel should make some records that will be hard to beat.

Jim Whitney, June '35

Jim is the present city champion in the 100-yard free style and a member of the state record breaking medley relay team. He was a consistent point winner all season getting more than his share of victories. Whitney is expected to be the mainstay in the swimming team after such stars as Towne and Glenn leave.

Ben Frost, June '35

Benny Frost, smooth stroking 100-yard dash man was one of the most improved swimmers on the squad. Ben started the season out by swimming on the relay team, but Coach Harris entered him in the 100-yard dash and he came through in great style.

Walter Hersteiner, June '35

In his first year of competition Walter proved that he was a valuable man on the swimming team. His best stroke being the crawl, Coach Harris gave him a chance to swim on the 160-yard relay team. Although Walt never swam in any event other than the relay race he should develop into a good 40-yard free style man next year.

Ralph Haynes, June '36

Ralph was another member of the victorious 160-yard relay team, winning his letter in this event. This season was Ralph's first taste of competition but with two years left many victories should accompany his swimming career.

Albert Johann, June '35

Al won his second letter in swimming this season by aiding the relay teams to their victories. He usually swam on the 160-yard relay team but being a backstroker of ability he sometimes splashed backwards for the medley team. Al will be with the team again next year.

Dale Turner, June '34

Being an exceptionally fast free style swimmer Dale was used on the 160-yard relay team. He is the only member of that team to graduate and his place will be hard to fill.

Jack Love, January '35

Because he always swam with Don Towne Jack was never able to win a first place but he gave Don more competition than other rivals could give. Many a team would be glad to have the smooth stroking Love swim the breast stroke for them. In his remaining semester Jack should accomplish even better things.

Homer Wise, June '34

Homer's favorite event was the 100-yard backstroke but he won his letter as a member of the medley relay team. Although Homer did not win his special event he was able to aid the medley team to victory. Homer receives his diploma this June.

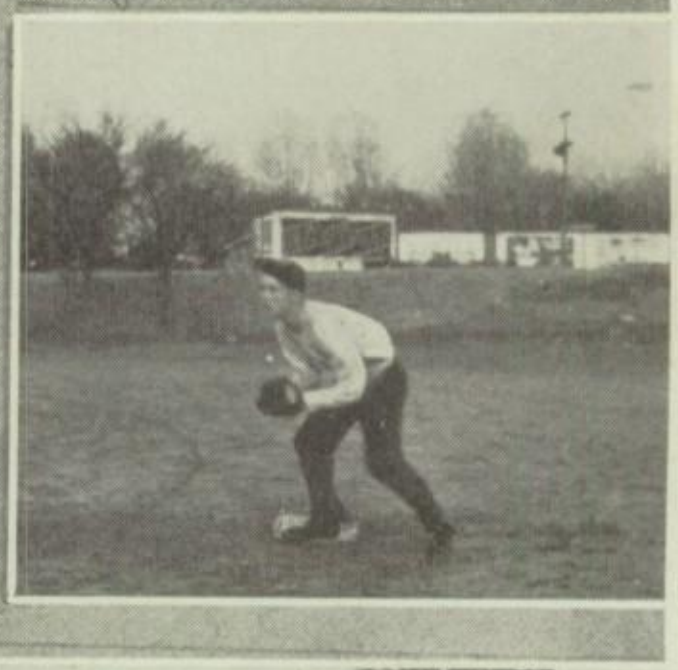
HISTORY

"Although the school group must necessarily change from year to year, the school itself is largely permanent."

Robert R. Cook



Events in the History of Roosevelt High

The history of Roosevelt High School begins not with the dedication in 1924, nor with the opening in 1923, but 'way back in February, 1918, when the first petitions for the school were filed in the office of the president of the school board.

In 1921, the contracts, amounting to approximately a million dollars, were let. The actual construction was commenced in the spring of 1922 and in September the corner stone was laid.

Although work on the school was not yet finished, the first session opened in September, 1923. In March of the following year the dedication of the still unfinished building, took place.

SELECTION OF PRINCIPAL

When Roosevelt was nearly completed, the school board faced the difficult task of selecting its leader. Much of the success or failure of the institution might depend upon the kind of man chosen to be its leader and adviser. Many men were carefully investigated, and from this group Robert Roy Cook of Topeka, Kansas, was chosen.

Mr. Cook faced the task of coming to a new school, unorganized, and making of it a smoothly functioning unit of operation. All who knew him realize just how well he accomplished this task.

The original faculty consisted of fifty members, many of whom are still with us. Although a large number of these come from West and other Des Moines High Schools, the remainder were recruited from all parts of the country.

GROWTH OF SCHOOL

When school opened in 1923 the enrollment was 1,291 which has since been greatly increased, and the present enrollment exceeds the nineteen hundred mark.

Roosevelt High has indeed grown, not only in size, but in spirit as well, and the added years have greatly enriched the meaning of the name. Theodore Roosevelt High School, which was chosen for this school because it was hoped that the high ideals and fine sportsmanship of this national hero would inspire the students of the school.

SEPTEMBER, 1923—JUNE, 1924

Organization of Student Council

One of the most noteworthy achievements of the first year was the formation of the Student Council. This brain child of Mr. Cook has in the eleven years of school history proved not only permanent but through its development it has inaugurated a new policy of student government which has since been adopted by other schools.

The first officers of the council were James Cole, president; Huntington Ellis, vice president, and Alice Bolton, secretary. This group, as well as the faculty and all the students, helped to formulate the creed of Roosevelt ideals. This creed stressed as of foremost importance honesty, sincerity, hard work, and honest sport, decisiveness and moral courage. Roosevelt students then, as now, believed in speaking softly, but carrying a big stick. These policies have guided their actions since then.

Press Convention

The year 1923 saw Roosevelt represented for the first time at the fourth Annual Press Convention at Grinnell, November 16th and 17th. Ten members represented the school at the conference. The "Roundup" was awarded honorable mention for having fine editorials.

HISTORY—1923-24

Girls' Declamatory Contest

The first girls' declamatory contest was held December 3d and 4th in 201 with Miss Sperry, Miss Moulton and Miss Jacobs acting as judges. Entries were divided into two classes, humorous and dramatic. Frances Clark won first in the humorous section, and Eunice Black, Bob Histed, and Helen Keithley tied for first in the dramatic section.

Adoption of Insignia

Many things of a permanent nature were adopted in 1923. One of the most important was the decision of the insignia committee in regard to senior rings and pins. According to Roundup files it was at the student council meeting held on December 16th that the figure of Roosevelt from Jay N. Darling's cartoon, "The Long, Long Trail," was adopted as the official crest for all senior rings and pins.

First Class Day

The first class ever graduated from Roosevelt marched down the aisles of the University Church of Christ. The class sermon was preached by Dr. Charles Medbury, the late pastor of that church. The theme of the exercises was "Building a New School."

THE ROUNDUP

SEPTEMBER, 1924—JUNE, 1925

E. H. Sothern Comes to Roosevelt

The first important event of 1924 was the visit of E. H. Sothern noted English actor who came to Roosevelt as the guest of the dramatic clubs. After a short talk on "Shakespearian Drama in High School and University," he went on a tour of the building, during which he commented favorably on the auditorium.

HISTORY—1923-24

Dedication of the School

The formal dedication of the school was held on March 2d in the auditorium. The invocation was given by the Rev. Herbert Scott, and the Rev. James Wolfe delivered the principal address. Judge Charles Hutchinson gave the official dedication.

City Debate Championship

Roosevelt debaters, under the direction of Mr. Carrothers, gained the first city debate championship by winning all the debates with West High, North High, and East High. Roosevelt's first debate team was composed of William Chase, Esther Lynde, and John Martin, affirmative, and Lawrence Blaisdale, Sam Elbert, and John Vreeland, negative.

Booster Club Started

An important club which was organized under Mr. Piper, physical education teacher, was the Booster Club. The purpose was to foster and encourage all kinds of athletics in Roosevelt. The club has since been organized into one of the most outstanding student council committees.

Annual Roundup

The second annual roundup held on October 31, 1924, was a huge success. Prizes were awarded for the best stunt, and Mr. Piper was master of ceremonies. The judges were Mr. H. T. Steeper, principal of West High, Mr. E. A. Zelliot, commercial teacher at Roosevelt, and Mr. Cook.

First Senior Play

In looking over the records for the year of 1923 and 1924 one finds a succession of first. The first senior play was presented on May 23d. It was "Penrod" by Booth Tarkington and Sam Williams had the title role. Hellen Marr Van Tuyl was the director.

HISTORY—1924-25

National Oratorical Contest

During the spring semester of 1925 the Des Moines Capital, in co-operation with thirty newspapers, sponsored a National Oratorical Contest on the activities of famous statesmen in the interpretation of the Constitution.

The year 1924-25 was ended with a senior play, "His Majesty Bunker Bean," in which Wayne Hill and Lee Bishop had leading roles.

SEPTEMBER, 1925—JUNE, 1926

In September, 1925, Roosevelt opened its doors to start its third year of operation.

Mr. Everett Davis, vice principal, was transferred to Woodrow Wilson Junior High as principal, and Mr. Clifton Schropp, present principal of Callanan and West Junior Highs, came from Minnesota to take his place.

Despite the fact that two hundred students had been graduated the previous June, the total enrollment was larger than that of the year before.

As soon as the school was started, the new council was organized. Under the council system then used, the council was composed of the officers of all senior high home rooms.

Drive Against Fraternities and Sororities

One of the first problems to come up this semester was a renewed drive against fraternities and sororities. Later this same semester, a state law was passed which took care of this by forbidding fraternities and sororities in public schools.

Roosevelt Day

During the previous semester, the senior English classes had written a play based on the life of Theodore Roosevelt in which many phases of Roosevelt's life were presented. This play was given before an assembly in October, 1925. Harry Martin portrayed the character of Roosevelt.

This same play with a few alterations was again given at the Roosevelt Day assembly last year.

New Motor Generator

In January of 1926 the school board presented Roosevelt with a motor generator to be installed in the physics laboratory. This motor is very useful in distributing currents, and was an immense addition to the equipment of the physics department.

Mixed Chorus Organized

It was in February, 1926, that the first Roosevelt mixed chorus was formed.

City Basket Ball Title in 1926

Sports came into the foreground during this year when Roosevelt, after hard competition, came out victorious with the city basket ball title to its credit.

Later in the year Bruce Thomas won first place in the city oratorical contest, bringing another city title home to the school.

Silver Screen Presented by P. T. A.

Another gift received by the school during this semester was a movie screen presented by the Parent-Teacher Association. It was hoped that the gift of this screen would inspire the students to contribute money for the purchase of a movie machine.

By winning second place in the state track meet, Roosevelt closed a very successful year of sports, and with it came the closing of school for the summer vacation.

SEPTEMBER, 1926—JUNE, 1927

By the time of its opening in 1926, Roosevelt had become a well established Des Moines institution, having already completed three successful years. After the usual matters of elections and organization had been taken care of, the school began to function smoothly.

One of the first problems to come before the student council at the opening of this semester was that of revising the point system.

City Football Title Won

Sports were prominent during this year, and after a successful season, Roosevelt won the city football title. The Roughrider team was not beaten during the entire season and only one team was successful in crossing the Blue and White goal line.

Council Constitution Revised

The biggest problem of the year which affected the school as a whole was that of revising the constitution of the student council. Under the system formerly used the council was large and unwieldy and little was accomplished. The new system provided that the council should consist of only fifteen members to be chosen from the school at large. It was hoped that this would bring better material into the council and increase the amount of work accomplished.

Dutcher Award Started

Early in the spring of 1927, Roosevelt was given, by Mr. Monroe S. Dutcher, a silver loving cup, which was named the Theodore Roosevelt Service Award Cup, though it is better known as the Dutcher Award. Each year on this cup is engraved the name of the student who has been of the greatest service to the school during that year. Helen Lingenfelter was the first person to have her name placed on the cup.

HISTORY—1926-27

Lincoln Tablet Given

Shortly after this event, Roosevelt received another gift, the bronze Lincoln Memorial tablet placed between the front doors. This plaque was given to the school by the Sons and Daughters of Veterans of the Civil War.

Other Honors of 1927

In April the city oratorical contest was held and Roosevelt won first place. Jennings Ferguson's oration on World Peace won the first honors of the contest.

Another honor came to Roosevelt when the Players Club, honorary dramatic club, won the state dramatic contest and received the drama cup award.

With sports again in the foreground, the Roosevelt track team added three new trophies to our case by winning first place in the Perry track meet.

Official Seal

The last thing of importance before the close of Roosevelt's fourth year was the adoption of an official Roosevelt seal. This seal was adapted from J. N. Darling's cartoon, "The Long, Long Trail."

SEPTEMBER, 1927—JUNE, 1928

Roosevelt's fifth year of operation started smoothly. The new council was speedily organized and immediately started to work. The first problem to present itself was that of over-lapping club meetings. This was taken care of by appointing a certain night for each club to meet.

Good-Will Assemblies Started

For the pep assemblies preceding the West-Roosevelt game, the two schools exchanged cheer-leaders, principals, and team captains. Although of little importance in itself, this is significant because it was the forerunner of the annual good-will assembly now held each year in the Des Moines High Schools.

Books Given by Mr. Weeks

In November, 1927, the Roosevelt Library received the addition of a set of seven books containing a detailed account of all information known about the World War. These books, entitled "Official Source Records of the Great War," were the gift of Mr. Carl Weeks.

At the Iowa High School Press Conference in Grinnell in 1927 the Roundup was awarded a cup for the best front page make-up. The cup had been offered by the Des Moines Register.

Coach Harris Comes to Roosevelt

One of the most important events in this year, judging by subsequent happenings, was the transfer of Coach Carl Harris from West High to Roosevelt. Coach Harris was the fourth coach in the history of Roosevelt, Glen Bingham, Lester Watt, and Les Overtoom having been promoted to college positions.

Character Rating Cards Formulated

During the first semester, Mr. Cook, Mr. Schropp, and Miss Emma C. Moulton formulated the plan for character rating cards now in use. These cards have proved a reliable guide in determining character development of students.

Colonel Roosevelt Talks to Students

On February 3d, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Junior, son of "Teddy," talked to the Roosevelt students about his famous father. Colonel Roosevelt addressed crowds at the Drake Field House and the Republican Banquet.

Music Honors

Roosevelt was singularly honored in February, 1928, by having two sopranos in the National Chorus. Marjorie Stivers and Jane Palmer sang in Chicago with a chorus of 300.

Roosevelt Largest School in City

By virtue of a 1,550 enrollment Roosevelt became the largest high school in Des Moines in 1928. East High had previously held all honors, but this year Roosevelt surpassed it by 30 students.

Tennis Courts

The 1928 paper drive sponsored by the P. T. A. made possible the tennis courts which every one enjoys so much today. The plans were decided upon March 16th, but the courts were not completed until late in September.

State Drama Winners

Because of the excellence of "The Locked Chest" presented at Iowa City, Roosevelt won first place in the state drama contest. The play was also entered in the Drake Drama Contest and took place there also for the second time.

David Bair was awarded the Dutcher cup this spring for leadership and character.

SEPTEMBER, 1928—JUNE, 1929

Stonecipher Comes to Roosevelt

Mr. Stonecipher, now acting principal, came to Roosevelt from Kansas to fill the vacancy of vice principal in 1928. He had attended Kansas State University, the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College and the Kansas Teachers' College.

Prominent Visitor

Roosevelt had visitors of importance many times. At the October 19th assembly in 1928, V. N. Ilahebaksh spoke on missionary work in India. Mr. Ilahebaksh, although born in Bombay, was reared in the United States and had since gone back to India as a missionary.

Roosevelt Day in 1928

The observance of Roosevelt Day had become a tradition. In 1928, however, in addition to the program in the auditorium, a home-coming picnic was held in Greenwood Park.

Point System Revised Again

The revision of the point system which had been under discussion for many months was passed on December 17th, reducing the number of points permissible each semester from 30 to 25.

Switchboard Installed

The Roosevelt switchboard valued at $3,000 was installed in 1929. The board is made up of eighty-six switches and twelve dimmers. These dimmers are capable of making 110 different shades of light which combined with other lights can make innumerable combinations possible.

SEPTEMBER, 1929—JUNE, 1930

One of the first projects of the student council, after the usual opening ceremonies was an extensive activity stamp sales campaign.

During the fall a series of inter-school friendship assemblies was held. These assemblies, which are still held, have been helpful in knitting the Des Moines schools into a closer co-operation.

Roosevelt Handbook

A project for this year was the making of the Roosevelt handbook. This book was written and edited by the journalism classes. It was planned as a source of help and information, especially to new students.

Basket Ball and Swimming Honors

As winter sports drew to a close, Roosevelt again came out victorious with both basket ball and swimming championships.

About mid-semester the P. T. A. gave the school a large case for the trophies and awards. This case had long been desired so that all of the trophies could be kept in one place.

SEPTEMBER, 1930—JUNE, 1931

New Books in Library

Early in this semester the library claimed the attention because of the many new books which had been added to it. At the opening of the semester there were 143 new books in the library and shortly afterwards, Mr. E. C. West donated 125 more from his own collection. He also gave a beautiful antique French engraving.

Athletic and Speech Honors

Football was a highlight of this year and after a successful season the Rough-rider team brought the football championship to Roosevelt for the second time in the school history.

Another honor came to Roosevelt when Murray Nelson won first place in the city extemporaneous speech contest.

As the semester came to a close the student council passed a ruling that club pins should have a maximum price of one dollar and a half. After completing this regulation, which was hotly contested, the council took up work on the constitution and passed six amendments at the last meeting of the semester.

Second Semester Plans

The new semester opened in full swing with a large enrollment. The new girls were well taken care of with the girls' club "pal" system which had been worked during the previous semester.

Several changes in both faculty and curriculum were made this semester. Another change was the issuing of grade cards twice a semester instead of three times.

Skeleton Given Biology Department

On learning that the Roosevelt Biology Department did not have a human skeleton, Judge Lawrence De Graff gave one to the school.

By winning the city debate contest, the Roosevelt debate team brought the Carl Byor trophy permanently to the Roosevelt trophy shelves. This cup was to be awarded to the school winning it three times.

Another city title came to Roosevelt when the band won first place in the city contest. It later placed second in the state contest.

SEPTEMBER, 1931—JUNE, 1932

An important activity of the early part of the fall of 1931 was the production of "The Mantuan," a play based on the life of Virgil, and written by Ruth Moore Stanley, a former member of the Roosevelt faculty.

Public Address System

The success of this production was greatly furthered by the installation of the public address system just before the date of the play. This amplifying system had long been under consideration and was a great addition to the equipment of the school.

Late this semester the city extemporaneous speech contest was held and Roosevelt was ranked first among the Des Moines Schools. Joe Silver and Courtney Smith were the Roosevelt speakers.

Washington Pictures Received

Early in the second semester Roosevelt received enough pictures of George Washington for every history room in the building to have one, and several other rooms besides. These pictures were the gift of C. C. Dowell, Iowa representative.

Basket Ball Victories

After a most successful basket ball season, Roosevelt took all honors by winning city, district, and state championships.

Mid-semester Roosevelt was again a contestant in the state debate contest and just barely dropped the first place to Waterloo by a tenth of a point.

Another public speaking contest came into the foreground when Joseph Silver won the city oratorical contest with his oration, "Washington, Man or Myth."

Championships seemed to be the regular run of things this year, for at the state music contest Roosevelt was awarded first place after winning 12 firsts in individual contests.

The year closed with the girls' glee club May Fete, a successful spring pageant on the west campus.

We wish to extend our sincerest congratulations and appreciation to the June and Mid-Summer Graduates.
The MONTOUR STUDIO has just enjoyed the busiest season in its history.
This was due in part to the usual splendid patronage of the Roosevelt High Graduates.
Due to the aggressiveness of MONTOUR STUDIO and our desire to offer the very latest and finest in things photographic, we will announce, this fall, a momentous contribution of great importance. Students, graduates, and the general public will be able to secure something never before obtainable in photographic work.
This fall announcement will serve notice that the very finest and newest is still obtainable at your photographic headquarters.
In the meantime MONTOUR STUDIO offers to all students and undergraduates special discounts on all photographs.

THE ROUNDUP

SEPTEMBER, 1933—JUNE, 1934

New Curriculum Introduced

A new curriculum was introduced in Roosevelt under the sponsorship of the Progressive Education Association. The course aims to work out an organization that will make for better prepared college students.

Cafeteria Acoustics Improved

A great improvement was carried out in 1933 with the installation of acoustical improvements in the study hall. 70 per cent of the heretofore deafening noise is absorbed by the acoustone. The work was begun on September 28th and completed October 2d.

Librarian Married

Miss Florence Ostlund, who had been librarian in Roosevelt for three years, married the Rev. Stanley Wilson of St. Paul, Minnesota, on November 11th. She was succeeded by Miss Nellie Behm.

A Roundup reporter managed to get an interview with General Johnson, chief administrator of the N.R.A., before the city paper reporters arrived on the scene.

Roosevelt Principal Dies

The second semester opened with the untimely passing of R. R. Cook, principal, on February 3d. Miss Glenn Ogden, history teacher from the opening of the school in 1923, followed him in death from the same disease, pneumonia, exactly one week later. The grief caused by the deaths of the beloved faculty members deranged the opening schedule and the first weeks of school, but the resolution to carry on has brought the school through a successful semester.

Adult Education

Roosevelt was one of the nation's schools in which adult night school was held. This was one of the national recovery measures for relieving depression.

Dramatic Productions

Several dramatic productions took place during the spring of 1934. The first was an all-school play entitled "The Queen's Husband." Next came the "Senior Frolic," a stage show, and near the close of the semester "Midsummer Night's Dream" was given by an all school cast.

A class of 250, the second largest in the school history, was graduated in June, 1934.
